THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC was founded February 11, 1867, by the eminent musician, Julius Eichberg, who was graduated from the Conservatory of Brussels with first prizes in violin and composition. After serving several years as professor at the Geneva Conservatory, he came to Boston in 1859 to become director of the Museum Concerts, a post he held until 1866. Mr. Eichberg was a composer of a wide range of chamber music, studies, songs, and operettas. Under his leadership the Conservatory gained a standing among leading music schools, attracting students from all parts of the country.

Following Eichberg's death (1893) the Conservatory came under the direction of Herman P. Chelius, well known organist and composer. The school was first incorporated under the Laws of Massachusetts in 1896. There followed several unsettled years during which time re-organizations were effected in 1905 and 1914.

In 1920, Agide Jacchia, an honor graduate of the Conservatory of Pessaro, was appointed director. Mr. Jacchia came to America in 1907 where he held engagements as musical director of opera companies in the United States, Canada, Central America and Mexico. He was for ten years conductor of the Boston "Pops" concerts (1917-1926). His knowledge and wide experience proved of inestimable value in re-establishing the prestige of the Conservatory. He continued as director until his death in 1932 and was succeeded for a short time by his widow, Mme. Ester Ferrabini Jacchia.

In 1933 the Conservatory came under the leadership of Albert Alphin, a former pupil and teacher at the school. He is responsible for reorganizing the school as a non-profit institution, acquiring its present complex of buildings on the Fenway, and the construction of its theatre (1949). Innovations under his guidance were the formulation of the Music Education department (1933), and the establishment of a theatre department offering programs in Drama and Dance leading to the baccalaureate degree. This combination was unique in making the school one of the first Conservatories in the country to offer professional training in the three performing arts, Music, Drama, and Dance.

The growth and stability of the Boston Conservatory is a tribute to the many distinguished musicians and teachers that have served on the faculty including such names as Ester Ferrabini Jacchia, Arturo Vita, Wellington Smith, voice; Hans Ebell, George Vieh, Georg Fior, piano; Otto Straub, Karl Weigl, Alan Hovhaness, composition; Carmine Fabrizio, Serge Korgueff, Ottaker Sevcik, violin; and many members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The current staff of over 70 includes artists and teachers who have served the Conservatory with distinction for a number of years.

Graduates of the Boston Conservatory of Music hold positions as performers in orchestras, major dance companies and theatre companies, and serve as music educators in schools and colleges throughout the country.

In its second century the Boston Conservatory will remain dedicated to the continuance of its efforts towards the sound preparation of tomorrow's teachers and artists thus contributing to the ever expanding influence of the arts in our society.

GENERAL INFORMATION

It is the purpose of the Boston Conservatory of Music to provide professional training in the three allied arts — music, drama, and dance — reinforced by a sound general education that will make graduates more resourceful as teachers and performers and more responsible as citizens. The numerous former students now successfully employed as performers or teachers speak for the realization of this purpose. To its continued realization, the faculty and administration are whole-heartedly devoted.

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

Application for admission must be made on official Conservatory forms and submitted well in advance of the intended entrance date. All applicants are considered without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin. The applicant will be required to submit to the Admissions Office the scores of at least one national college-entrance examination. These examinations are administered at secondary schools, or by direct arrangement with:

The College Entrance Examination Board
Eastern Office: Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey
Western Office: Box 1025, Berkeley, California 94701

The American College Testing Program
P.O. Box 168
Iowa City, Iowa

For admission to a Degree Program, college preparatory study should total a minimum of sixteen entrance units, distributed as follows:

English (4 years' study)	4 units
Foreign Language.....	2
Higher Mathematics.....	1
Social Studies.....	1
Laboratory Science.....	1
*Fixed Electives.....	4
Free Electives	3
	16

*These four units must be earned in Language, Mathematics, Science or Social Science.

Foreign students must submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Additional information may be obtained from United States Embassies and Legations.

Transfer students must also submit transcripts from post secondary schools attended and a catalog, together with a statement of release in good standing on a form available from the Conservatory.

For admission to the Diploma Program, the academic requirements are not specific; however, a high school diploma or its equivalent is required.

Teaching Studio

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS MUSIC

For acceptance to a music major course, an applicant must demonstrate, by audition, his ability to pursue Conservatory level work.

Proficiency levels for acceptance are as follows:

PIANO MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation. Repertoire should include representative works from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and Contemporary literature.

ORGAN MAJOR. An applicant should be able to meet the requirements for entering Freshmen in Piano, or demonstrate a comparable advancement in technique and repertoire on the Organ.

VOICE MAJOR. An applicant should be able to sing art songs with true intonation and developed tone quality, and in the original language (French, German, Italian). The ability to play piano is desirable.

STRING MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation through the study and performance of etudes, scales, and appropriate repertoire.

HARP MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation and have performing proficiency in appropriate repertoire.

WIND MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation through the study of etudes, scales, and repertoire appropriate to his instrument.

PERCUSSION MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation for the playing of snare drum, timpani, and melodic mallet instruments, and have studied appropriate repertoire for each.

MUSIC EDUCATION MAJOR.

COMPOSITION MAJOR. Applicants to these programs must demonstrate proficiency on at least one instrument or voice. Ability to play the piano is highly desirable.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS DRAMA

Applicants in Drama must present an audition which consists of:

1. One selection from classic repertoire, i.e. Greek, Elizabethan, Restoration, or 18th Century.
2. Two selections from contemporary plays, one comedy and one serious.

Each selection shall be at least one minute and not over three minutes in duration. Scenes should be memorized and prepared without direction or coaching from anyone. Several speeches by one character may be blended, omitting other characters to make a scene of sufficient length, or both parts of a two character scene may be read, or another person may assist by reading the other parts.

Applicants for the Drama Major-Musical Theatre Minor, in addition to the above, must be prepared to sing two contemporary show tunes.

1. A ballad or love song of sustained tone quality.
2. A light rhythmic song.

N. B. The applicant must bring his own sheet music. An accompanist will be provided.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

DANCE

Dance applicants must participate in two audition classes, one ballet and one modern. These auditions are scheduled on Saturdays periodically through the year. Applicants should bring to these auditions a recorded tape (7½) of two minutes duration, and be prepared to perform an individual dance solo in ballet, modern or jazz. This solo may be the student's own choreography or one prepared by a teacher. On acceptance to the program, the student has one year of probation. Continuation in the program is based on talent, intelligent cooperation and endurance.

EXTENSION PROGRAM

Private instruction in instruments and voice is available to those who may wish to pursue such studies during the day or early evening hours. Extension dance classes are also available. Academic credit is not available for extension studies.

SUMMER SESSION

Undergraduate and graduate courses in applied music, music history, theory, composition and music education are offered during the Summer Session. Summer Session programs in Drama and Dance are also available. Academic credit for Summer Session study may be earned (1) if the student has been previously matriculated at the Conservatory, (2) by a transfer student accepted for enrollment, or (3) by a guest student from another collegiate institution with written authorization from an appropriate official of the institution.

EXAMINATIONS AND GRADING SYSTEM

SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS. All students following the degree or diploma programs are required to take examinations in their courses at the end of each semester.

APPLIED MUSIC EXAMINATIONS. All students seeking credit in applied music must perform at Concert Hour and before a faculty jury at the end of each semester. Students with an unsatisfactory attendance record (fewer than 13 lessons per semester) will not be admitted to this audition, and will be graded "failure."

CONCERT HOUR. Weekly concerts give the student an opportunity to perform before the faculty and fellow students. Individual critiques guide the student in developing professional confidence. Minimum requirements are as follows:

	Applied	Music Education and Composition
Freshman year.....	1 per semester	1 per semester
Sophomore year	1 per semester	1 per semester
Junior year	2 per semester	1 per semester
Senior.....	3 per semester	2 per semester
Graduate Students (Full Time)....	3 per semester	—————

PROMOTIONAL AUDITIONS. At the conclusion of the third semester of applied study, each student will be evaluated by the faculty for Promotion. The faculty will vote to advance or detain the student as well as issue a jury grade.

If advancement is decided, it is presumed that only unforeseen circumstances will prevent the normal completion of subsequent jury and recital requirements.

If detainment is decided, the student will be given one additional probationary semester to achieve promotion, or failing to do so, anticipate dismissal from the Conservatory for failure to meet applied music standards.

GRADING SYSTEM

Letter Grade	Numerical Equivalent	Grade Quotient
A	95-100.....	4.000
A-	90-94.....	3.700
B+	87-89.....	3.300

E	Below 65	0.000
I	Incomplete	None
W	Withdrawal	None
H	Honors	None
S	Satisfactory	None
U	Unsatisfactory	None
NC	No Credit	None

DEAN'S LIST. Students carrying 12 or more credit hours in any semester (diploma candidates, 10 credit hours) will be elected to the Dean's List if achieving a grade point average of 3.300, or will be placed on the Dean's List with Honors if achieving a grade point average of 3.600 (no grade below C-).

The grade "Incomplete" may be issued to permit the student additional time to complete course requirements or to take missed final examinations, only when the cause of the delay has been authenticated illness or other emergency. An incomplete issued at the end of the Fall Semester must be completed before the end of the fifth week of the following Spring Semester. An incomplete issued at the end of the Spring Semester must be completed before the end of the Summer Session. An incomplete issued at the end of the Summer Session must be completed before the start of the Fall Semester. Failure to comply with this schedule will cause the "Incomplete" to be recorded as an "E."

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES

Throughout the year, the Conservatory maintains a full schedule of public recitals, concerts, and ensemble programs. In addition, the Drama and Dance Departments present a variety of major productions and workshop performances. Faculty and guest artists appear frequently throughout the year. Regular attendance at these concerts and participation by qualified students is considered a vital part of the education at the Conservatory.

LIBRARY

The Albert Alphin Music Library houses a specialized collection of books and periodicals in the subject fields of music, drama, and dance as well as a representative collection of college-level books in the liberal arts. A noteworthy collection is the Jan Veen-Katrine Amory Hooper Memorial Collection containing many rare and foreign books on dance and art. The library's music collection includes miniature scores, music anthologies, and Gesamtausgaben for study purposes and, in addition, includes orchestral, concert band, chamber ensemble, choral, operatic, and solo instrumental and vocal scores for both study and performance purposes. The library houses phonorecordings and audio-tape recordings of the classical music repertoire from its earliest history to the present, and phonorecordings of the spoken word in poetry and drama. A special collection is the audio-tape library of all major Boston Conservatory of Music performances from 1966 to date. The library's audio-visual equipment includes modern listening facilities and microfilm reading facilities.

The library resources are supplemented by the Inter-library Loan System which gives access to libraries across the nation. Situated in the heart of Boston the library further supplements its resources with the historic collections of the famous Boston Public Library, easily available due to proximity. To meet the needs of the faculty and students the library has increased its holdings at the rate of over 3,000 books, scores, and recordings each year. Recent benefactors who have contributed to the library's growth are: the family of the late Francis Findlay; the late Katrine Amory Hooper; the family of the late Alfred Mirovitch; and the late Jan Veen.

RESIDENCE

The Conservatory maintains residence halls near its classroom buildings, facing The Fenway. Each of these houses is supervised by its own director, and is notable for its home-like atmosphere and friendly co-operation. Meals are served in the Conservatory dining room where two meals are provided daily. A la carte lunches are available week days at nominal rates.

Room and board reservation should be made as soon as the student is notified of acceptance for admission. This reservation is secured by an advance deposit of $100, which is applicable to the student's account, and not refundable. Upperclass students returning to the Conservatory may make dormitory reservations by submitting a non-refundable deposit of $100 before March 15. In all cases, this reservation is held as binding for the school year, and may not be broken except for an emergency which, in the judgement of the Administration, necessitates a student's withdrawal from school.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Each candidate for the Bachelor of Music Degree must complete the prescribed course of study in his program with satisfactory grades. A student receiving grades below C- in more than 12 credit hours will not be permitted to graduate.

APPLIED MUSIC MAJORS must have studied a comprehensive repertoire of literature in their chosen field and must give solo recitals in the junior and senior years. Outstanding soloists may audition for performances with the orchestra or other instrumental combinations.

MUSIC EDUCATION MAJORS must have studied representative literature in their applied concentrate and must give a public recital in their senior year. This recital must be performed from memory by voice and piano concentrates.

Other instrumental concentrates must perform at least one major work or equivalent from memory.

COMPOSITION MAJORS must give evidence by examination that they have acquired proficiency on their applied concentrate and must present for approval a folio of original compositions (neatly written in ink) as follows:

1. not less than five works in smaller forms — piano pieces, songs and/or solos for orchestral instruments;
2. a composition in fugal form for string quartet, woodwind or brass ensemble;
3. an example of sonata-form for piano or for ensemble combination;
4. a composition of symphonic proportions or a work for chorus and orchestra (minimum duration 15 minutes). Two copies of this final work must be appropriately bound and presented to the Conservatory Library two weeks before graduation.

In addition to prescribed course work, composition majors are both encouraged and expected to do creative work on their own. Frequent concerts of student compositions are presented.

DANCE AND DRAMA candidates for the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree must provide evidence of successful completion of the prescribed curriculum. A student receiving grades below C- in more than twelve credit hours will not be permitted to graduate.

THE GRADUATE DIVISION

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC offers courses leading to the Master of Music degree in the fields of Applied Music (instrumental and vocal), Composition and Music Education. The Graduate Division Program is open to those who hold the Bachelor of Music degree or other equivalent baccalaureate degree with a major in music from a school of recognized standing. Records of undergraduate studies presented for entrance must represent work equivalent in quality and content to that prescribed for similar degrees at the Boston Conservatory.

REQUIREMENTS: The minimum requirement for the master's degree is the completion of thirty-two semester hours, twenty-six of which must be earned in residence. A grade of B or better must be obtained in all subjects in the course. No applicant may assume that he may fulfill the requirements in one academic year, since much depends upon the undergraduate preparation, possible deficiencies to be removed, and the ability of the individual student. Applied majors, or music education candidates electing the recital option, are required to be registered and studying in the respective applied area for a minimum of four semesters, or the equivalent. All undergraduate prerequisite studies in the major field must be made up without graduate credit. A change of major from the undergraduate level will usually involve the fulfillment of pre-requisites. All graduate programs, including elective subjects and changes of program, must be approved, and all degree requirements must be completed within five years from the date of matriculation.

Each candidate for the degree with a major in APPLIED MUSIC will be required to present a full length public recital demonstrating high artistic accomplishment. The program for this recital must be previewed before a faculty jury for approval before the date of the public recital will be announced. Specific requirements for the graduate level recital are available from the Chairman of the Graduate Division. Credit for the final semester of applied study will be issued upon successful completion of the public recital.

A candidate for the degree with a major in COMPOSITION is required to prepare a thesis. The thesis will be one of the following:

- (a) An original composition scored for full orchestra and requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance. This composition may be for chorus, solo voice, or an instrument, with orchestral accompaniment.
- (b) An original composition for chamber orchestra requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance.
- (c) An original orchestral composition scored for full orchestra requiring not less than ten minutes in performance, and a shorter work for chorus or an instrumental combination requiring not less than five minutes in performance.

Two bound scores of the above must be presented to the Conservatory Library prior to the date of graduation. A candidate in this curriculum is required to elect a minimum of twelve credit hours in Composition subjects at the graduate level, and four credit hours of applied music study.

A candidate for the degree with a major in MUSIC EDUCATION may choose one of the following:

- (a) The preparation of a thesis concerning an approved topic of interest and importance in the field of Music Education. Preparation of the thesis will be under the guidance of a faculty advisor. A completed typewritten copy of the thesis must be submitted for correction and approval at least six weeks prior to the date of intended graduation. After approval, two copies of the completed, bound thesis must be presented to the Conservatory Library prior to graduation. In this program the candidate must elect Introduction to Graduate Study, Music Education 129 and 130 (Thesis), a minimum of 12 credit hours of Music Education elective, and a minimum of 4 credit hours of applied music study.
- (b) The performance of a full length public recital demonstrating high artistic accomplishment. The program for this recital must be previewed before a faculty jury for approval before the date of the public recital will be announced. Specific requirements for the graduate level recital are available from the Chairman of the Graduate Division. In this program the candidate must elect a minimum of 12 credit hours of Music Education electives, and 12 credit hours of applied music study. Credit for the final semester of applied music study will be issued upon successful completion of the public recital.

ADMISSION: An applicant to the Graduate Division must comply with the following:

- (a) File an application, on a form provided by the Conservatory, with the Chairman of the Graduate Division at least two months prior to the time of intended matriculation.
- (b) Submit transcript (s) of all work completed for the undergraduate degree, and catalog (s) describing course content.

- (c) Submit scores of the aptitude portion of the Graduate Record Examination. These examinations are administered throughout the year. Information may be obtained from:

Educational Testing Service
Princeton, New Jersey 08540
(or)
1947 Center Street
Berkeley, California 94704

- (d) Foreign students must submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Additional information may be obtained from United States Embassies and Legations.

All applicants will be interviewed and auditioned by faculty of the Graduate Division. Candidates who qualify for acceptance, but who have deficiencies for admission, will be given provisional graduate standing until such time as the undergraduate deficiencies have been removed. Such deficiencies must be removed at least one semester before completion of the graduate degree program.

Full time graduate students may be required to participate in rehearsals and performances of Conservatory Ensembles. Applied music majors must appear in scheduled public performances.

N.B. The Conservatory reserves the right to alter tuition and other fees at any time it may be deemed necessary.

DEFERRED PAYMENT

For students and parents desiring to pay education expenses in monthly installments, deferred payment programs are available through commercial educational loan agencies.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

A medical insurance plan is provided through BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD at a nominal annual fee. Students not covered by any other form of medical insurance are advised to enroll in this plan. Its benefits greatly assist in the event of serious illness or other emergency.

TEXTBOOKS

The Conservatory maintains a small bookstore for the convenience of students in the purchase of textbooks and supplies. The cost of textbooks and supplies is estimated at between $50 and $75 per year.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

The following scholarships afford assistance for a limited number of students who show evidence of exceptional ability and financial need. Scholarships awarded to students are renewable upon application. Applicants for scholarships must complete the Parent's Confidential Statement or the Student's Financial Statement and file with the College Scholarship Service of the College Entrance Examination Board. Forms may be obtained from high school guidance offices or from the Boston Conservatory of Music.

THE SEVCIK SCHOLARSHIP. A fund established for the aid of deserving violin students by the distinguished violin pedagogue, Professor Ottakar Sevcik, during his visit to America (1931-32) as guest teacher.

BLANCHE B. PARKER FUND. The income of a bequest under the will of the late Blanche B. Parker to be used for the assistance of one or more women students of voice.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS. A special fund established by the Alumni Association.

BERTHA T. OTIS SCHOLARSHIP. The income from a fund established by the late Bertha T. Otis.

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIPS. Scholarships sponsored by faculty members are available to students of composition, voice, organ, pianoforte, orchestral instruments, dance, and drama.

CONSERVATORY SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A fund made possible by individual contributions and by proceeds from various benefit recitals and activities.

FRANCIS FINDLAY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A fund established by family and friends, in memory of Mr. Francis Findlay (1894-1967), former chairman of the department of Music Education and Graduate Study.

AWARDS. The following prizes are awarded annually to the two full-time students (12 or more hours) who have maintained the highest averages for the school year; for highest honors, the ARTHUR B. WHITNEY PRIZE; for second highest honors, the ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRIZE.

REGULATIONS

ATTENDANCE. Regular attendance is essential to the successful completion of all Conservatory courses. Absence due to illness or other emergency may be excused if supported by a statement from a physician or other medical authority or if approved by the Dean. Unexcused absences may not exceed the hour equivalent of the number of credit hours earned in the semester, i.e., in a three credit course, three hours of unexcused absence will be permitted. Excessive absence may result in the dismissal from the course with a failing grade.

Any member of a musical organization, dance, acting and musical theatre course, or ensemble organization who fails to participate in a public performance will forfeit credit for the course.

Attendance at Commencement is compulsory for all graduating students. A penalty of $20 (in addition to the graduation fee) will be assessed any student who is absent, and the student must present himself at the Conservatory in person before his degree (diploma) will be released.

Private lessons missed due to unavoidable absence will be made up providing 24 hours' notice has been given to the Conservatory office. Lessons are forfeited unless proper notice is given. All lessons that are made up must be completed during the current semester.

COURSE WITHDRAWALS. Students may withdraw from individual courses without penalty until the middle of the semester and a grade of "W" will be recorded. Withdrawals after mid-term will result in a failing grade. No refund of charges will be made for course withdrawals.

MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS. All scheduled examinations must be taken in order to receive credit for a course. A charge of $5 will be assessed for each make-up examination resulting from an excused absence. Unexcused absence from a final examination will cause the grade to be recorded as a failure.

CHANGE OF PROGRAM. Changes of program may only be made with the approval of the Dean. A student wishing to change his major or curriculum may petition the Dean, but the Administration reserves the right to deny any such petition. Any deficiencies or prerequisites which result from a change of program may lengthen the program of studies.

TRANSFER CREDIT & STANDING. Transfer credit from accredited collegiate institutions in Applied Music, Music Theory, Applied Drama, or Applied Dance is determined by examination on entrance to the Conservatory. Transfer standing and length of residency will be determined by the Board of Admissions or the Graduate Division. This determination will normally be made during the first semester of residency.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT. The Conservatory participates in the program of Advanced Placement Examinations of the College Testing Service.

Students who demonstrate satisfactory achievement through this testing program will be awarded academic credit and advanced standing.

AUDITORS. Matriculated students wishing to audit courses must receive approval from the Dean. Students auditing courses may attend and participate in classes, but are not responsible for assignments or examinations and will receive neither grades nor credit. Full tuition is charged for courses audited.

CREDIT LOAD. A student is considered to be full-time at the undergraduate level if carrying 12 credit hours per semester (diploma curriculum, 10 credit hours). Graduate students are considered to be full-time if carrying 8 credit hours per semester. The allowable credit load in any semester is determined by the student's individual curricular requirements. Students wishing to elect additional courses must have the approval of the Dean and will be charged additional tuition on a per course or credit hour basis. The credit load may not exceed 18 credit hours per semester.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS. All tuition and fees are payable in accordance with the following schedule:

First Semester Charges	due August 15
Second Semester Charges	due January 1
Summer Session Charges.....	due at registration

Students failing to comply with this schedule will be excluded from classes.

DIPLOMA CURRICULA

The Diploma Course is designed for the student whose talent and interest may warrant intensive training in his major field and basic related subjects. The program parallels the degree curriculum, minus certain academics, and is intended to prepare the student as a performer and for private teaching. Graduation from high school, or equivalent, is required for admission. Applied music majors are required to give a recital in the junior and senior years.

DESCRIPTION OF STUDIES

ACCOMPANYING

Accompanying 1, 2, 3, 4. A course in the study of the techniques of piano accompaniment for vocal and instrumental literature. Practical experience through work with student performers will be included.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

APPLIED MUSIC

Applied Music. Intensive private study of the technique and repertoire of the student's principal instrument. Applied music requirements and levels are determined by the instructor and confirmed by the faculty jury through examination at the conclusion of each semester. Voice and instrumental applied music majors are assigned one hour, private lessons weekly; concentrates and minors, one-half hour private lessons weekly. Students may elect additional instruction at extra cost.

ARRANGING

Arranging 1-2. Contemporary techniques in professional arranging: melodic analysis, harmonization of melody, close and open voicing, instrumentation, idiomatic harmonic progressions, characteristics of sectional versus ensemble arranging.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Arranging 3-4. Application of fundamentals to varied instrumental combinations, from four piece to fifteen piece ensembles.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Arranging 5. Choral Arranging. A study of the techniques of arranging for various choral ensembles including the study of ranges, tone quality, vocal blend and contemporary vocal idioms.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours per semester.

Arranging 105-106. (Prerequisite: Arranging or Instrumentation 1, 2.) Advanced arranging techniques.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

CHURCH MUSIC

Church Music 1-2. Choir Training: Methods of organization; rehearsal techniques; choral repertoire; program building; various rituals, chant; pronunciation of church Latin.

Credit, two hours each semester.

Church Music 103-104. A study of the history of sacred music; Gregorian chant; Anglican chant; notation.

Credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION

Composition 1-2. Basic principles of composition beginning with aperiodic athematic diatonic melody, and progressing to chromaticism and to harmonic and polyphonic structures.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 3-4. A wide variety of techniques are utilized in the development of the creative individuality of the composer within a framework of discipline and control. Compositions primarily for small combinations of instruments.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 5-6. Twentieth century techniques such as tone-cluster, hyperdense verticalized counterpoint and uses of the pitch-class series. Also composition in techniques of the past and the study of their principles, beginning with 13th century multiple organa.

One hour private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 7-8. Supervised composition of the senior thesis and continued work in techniques of the past, up to and including 18th and 19th century styles.

One hour private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Composition 109-110-111-112. Emphasis on New Music. Pointillistic textures, fragmented melodic textures, complexes, construction and use of harmonic aggregates. Ways of achieving form and structure arithmetically. Texture-types and their inter-relationships. New rhythmic technique. Guided experimental composition.

Private, one hour weekly; credit, three hours each semester.

Composition 113. Seminar in Exploratory Composition. Creative projects utilizing new notational and performance techniques. Aleatoric and mechanistic principles applied to structure and form. Related score analysis. (Open to composition majors and other graduate students by consent of the instructor).

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

CONDUCTING

Conducting 1-2. The elementary technique of conducting applied to both choral and instrumental music. Principles of attack and release, setting and changing tempi, phrasing and interpretation; practice in score reading.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Conducting 3-4. Reading and analysis of more complex scores and more advanced baton technique.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Conducting Workshop. (See Music Education 11-12).

Conducting 105-106. Advanced Instrumental Conducting. A course which investigates the more difficult problems confronting the instrumental conductor. Emphasis is given to orchestral procedures, performance practices, development of the orchestra, and instrumental requirements of major composers. Pre-requisite: Conducting 1-2.

One private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Conducting 107-108. Advanced Choral Conducting. A course designed to acquaint the student with techniques of vocal score analysis, extended repertoire, performance practices, and to investigate proper interpretation concepts of the various periods and styles of choral literature. Pre-requisite: Conducting 1-2.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT

Counterpoint 1-2. Species counterpoint in two parts; canon, double counterpoint; inventions in two parts.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Counterpoint 3-4. Free counterpoint in three and four parts; canon and fugue.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Counterpoint 5-6. Advanced study in fugue, canon, passacaglia; application of contrapuntal forms to contemporary music.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

Counterpoint 107-108. Double and triple counterpoint; contemporary techniques; linear counterpoint; analysis of representative works.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

EAR TRAINING

Ear Training 1-2. Review of the basic fundamentals of music; notation, clefs, scales, tonality, intervals, chords, ornamentation, terminology. Rhythmic articulation and sight-singing in treble and bass clefs. Rhythmic and melodic dictation. The system of stationary solfeggio syllables is used.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Ear Training 3-4. Advanced studies in rhythmic singing, and sight-singing in alto and tenor clefs; harmonic dictation, dictation in two, three, and four parts, and in changing meter.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Solfege 105-106. An advanced course in sight-singing in all clefs; harmonic dictation, and transposition. Pre-requisite: Ear Training 3-4, or equivalent.

Private Instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

FORM AND ANALYSIS

Form and Analysis 1-2. Underlying principles of chord structure and harmonic rhythm as they effect form and content; non-harmonic and contrapuntal devices. In the first semester shorter forms will be studied from piano and vocal literature. In the second semester the larger forms, including Sonatas and Concertos, will be examined. Representative scores will be analyzed to illustrate various approaches to form, texture, and instrumentation, and their bearing on performance.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Form and Analysis 103-104. An advanced course for graduate students, comprising a detailed examination of scores in several media, for better understanding of individual composers' styles, and the main direction of musical development. The first semester comprises the later evolution of chromatic harmony to early Schoenberg, and the second explores other 20th century techniques of tonal organization.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY

Harmony 1-2. The Harmonic Style of the 18th and early 19th Centuries. Preliminary definitions; intervals; triads and their inversions; principles of chord progression; nonharmonic tones; harmonic rhythm; seventh chords and their inversions; modulation to related keys; secondary dominants; harmonization of given basses and melodies; introduction to harmonic analysis; keyboard harmony.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Harmony 3-4. The Harmonic Style of the later 19th Century. Irregular resolutions; modulation to remote keys; the diminished seventh chords; 9th, 11th, and 13th chords; nondominant seventh chords; chromatically altered chords; exercises in vocal and instrumental style; analysis of Bach chorales and other literature; keyboard harmonization of basses and melodies.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Harmony 5-6. An advanced course primarily for composition majors. Special study of the application of modern harmonic technique. Polytonality, atonality, pandiatonicism, and other devices pertinent to the contemporary idiom.

Credit, one hour each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION

Instrumentation 1-2. A study of the nature of the various orchestral instruments. Scoring for vocal ensembles, band and orchestral combinations.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

Instrumentation 3-4. Scoring for full orchestra and/or band, and for various instrumental combinations.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Instrumentation 105-106. A continuation of Instrumentation 3-4, with emphasis on orchestration for the symphony orchestra. Analysis of the techniques employed by composers of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

MUSIC EDUCATION

Music Education 1. Introduction to Music Education: A survey of the historical, psychological, and philosophical aspects of music education; an investigation of the attitudinal characteristics and professional skills implicit in the development of the successful music educator.

One hour weekly; Spring semester only, one credit hour.

Music Education 2. Music in the Elementary School: Modern music curriculum concepts and methods. An introduction to the procedures and materials for teaching and supervising music in the elementary school. DANCE DEPARTMENT

Ruth Sandholm Ambrose, Artistic Advisor

The professional dance course at the Boston Conservatory of Music is an integrated program of Ballet, Modern, Jazz, Ethnic techniques. Pedagogy and choreographic elements develop through the four years with more complexity as the student develops. A high standard of training is acquired from the professional faculty giving a strong mastery of the techniques. The student has many opportunities to perform through choreography workshop programs, musicals, community programs, and with the Boston Dance Theater. Emphasis is on the performing professional dancer who can then teach or choreograph, with constant guidance by the faculty toward a major concentration.
